Gold Coast

In-between New Territories and Lantau Island is Gold Coast, an unexplored paradise on the South China Sea. Pass the magnificent Tsing Ma Bridge and enjoy panoramic views of verdant mountains.

Victoria Harbour

Marvel at Hong Kong's most famous skyline from the privacy and comforts of your own boat.

Tai Long Wan

Nestled in the hillside of the east coast of Sai Kung Peninsula are Tai Long Wan's beaches. After a 2 hour hike or boat cruise, revitalize on the white sand beaches and in the tropical blue waters.

Sokos Islands

Home to numerous marine species, especially the rare Chinese white Dolphins, the cluster of islets is located in between Hong Kong Island and Macau.

Potoi Island

Po Toi is famous for its rocks formation, for example, The Buddha Hand Rock, the Coffin Rock and the Tortoise Climbing up the Mountain. The famous seafood restaurants await you upon arrival.

Sai Kung

Sai Kung, Hong Kong's "back garden", offers pristine beaches, clear waters and calming sea breezes.

Stanley Bay

Stanley's relaxed ambiance, sea views and bargain buys have made this attraction famous world-wide, however, relaxing and windsurfing at Stanley's great beaches should not be overlooked.
